

CHAP. 129. shall not affect the rights acquired by any person or persons who may have heretofore obtained, and be entitled to use a license under the laws of this state, relating to lotteries or the sale of lottery tickets therein.

Commissioners in certain cases to call on attorney general, &c

Sec. 21. And be it enacted, That in case any person or persons shall, within this state, propose or offer to draw or dispose of any lottery or lotteries, or other device or game of chance, or any scheme or schemes of any lottery or lotteries, or other device or game of chance, which the lottery commissioners shall believe to be unauthorised by the laws of this state, the said commissioners shall be and they are hereby authorised in every such case to call on the attorney-general, or any of his deputies, in behalf of this state, to sue out of any county court, or of the high court of chancery, a writ of injunction, to restrain such person or persons from proceeding in the drawing of any such lottery or lotteries, or other device or game of chance, until the rights of the parties can be determined.

Compensation of commissioners

Sec. 22. And be it enacted, That the compensation of the commissioners of lotteries and their clerk, shall be dependent upon and be received out of the funds derived from the avails of lotteries drawn or to be drawn during the current year.

---

CHAP. CXXX.

Passed Mar 4, 1829

An Act to divorce John B. Scott, of the City of Baltimore, from Adeline his Wife.

Marriage declared null and void

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John B. Scott, of the city of Baltimore, in the state of Maryland, be thenceforth divorced from his wife, Adeline; and the marriage heretofore had and solemnized between them, is hereby declared to be henceforth and for ever null and void; and they are hereby declared to be mutually released from all and every duty and obligation, and benefit and advantage, growing out and in consequence of the said marriage, so far as the same are cognizable by the laws of the country.

---

CHAP. CXXXL

Passed Mar 6, 1829

An Act to authorise the Governor and Council to appoint an Inspector and Measurer of Lumber, and a Measurer of Coals, in the Town of Williams-Port, Washington County.

Governor and council to appoint

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the governor and council shall, immediately