

ard, or order; for Elizabeth Hays, twenty dollars; for Ann Elms, twenty dollars; for Samuel Ewing, thirty dollars. In Prince-George's county, for James Rantin, thirty dollars, to be paid to Nathaniel T. Rantin or his order; for Catharine Gray, twenty dollars; for Lawson A. Clark, and five orphan children, by the name of Tomlinson, fifty dollars; for Sarah Barnes, twenty dollars; for Winey Ann Thorn, twenty dollars; for Sally Onions, twenty dollars; for Priscilla Leazer, twenty dollars; for Elizabeth Walker, twenty dollars; for Levi and Mary Ann Harvey, orphan children of Richard Harvey, ten dollars each. In Worcester county, for Polly Mason, forty dollars, to be paid to William Aydolott; for Hannah Ivis, twenty-four dollars; for Henry Hudson, thirty dollars; for Henry White (of Thomas,) fifty dollars; for James Mitchell (of Alexander,) twenty dollars; for Viletor Jackson, twenty dollars; for Polly Livingston, twenty-five dollars; for Peter White, twenty-five dollars; for Patience Worrington, twenty-five dollars; for Brittingham Bevans, not exceeding forty dollars nor less than thirty dollars. In Caroline county, for Henrietta Cotner, twenty dollars; for Nancey Cade, twenty-five dollars; for Thomas Harman, twenty-five dollars. In Harford county, for John Allen, thirty dollars; for Parker Hall, thirty dollars; for John Griffin, thirty dollars, and the levy court are hereby required to levy the same; and for James P. Scott, thirty dollars. In Anne-Arundel county, for Richard Hall, twenty dollars; for Catharine Brown, twenty dollars; for Maria Diggs, twenty dollars; for Rachel Wood, twenty dollars; for Elizabeth Tydings, twenty dollars; for Mary Sherbert, twenty dollars; for Ann Atwell, twenty dollars; for Charles Phentix, fifteen dollars; for Lucretia Stockett, fifteen dollars; for the benefit of John Stallings, twenty dollars, to be paid to George Watts or his order; for Kitty M'Neir, twenty dollars; for Rebecca Taylor, twenty dollars; for Mary Johnson (the elder,) twenty-five dollars; for James Glover, twenty dollars; for Willey Sullivan, twenty dollars; for Ann Griffin, twenty dollars; for Richard B. Watts, thirty dollars, payable to the order of John Miller, or his order; for Priscilla Daley, thirty dollars; for Mary Nichols, twenty dollars; for Richard Wooten, fifteen dollars, to be paid to Israel Davidson or his order; for Ann Biggs, fifteen dollars; for Ann Tucker, thirty dollars. In Cecil county, for Jonathan Packer, twenty dollars, in addition to what he now receives; for John Carnan, forty dollars; for John Mercer, forty dollars. In Baltimore county, for Edward Roe, twenty-five dollars; for John Tohey, twenty-five dollars. In Frederick county, for George Rheam, thirty dollars; for James M'Attee and Nancy Busee, fifteen dollars each; for Henry Leasure, twenty dollars; for Thomas Cross, thirty dollars, payable to the order of William P.