

ty for the time being, who shall pay the said fine into the treasury at such time as is now directed by law. CHAP. 12.

CHAP. XII.

An Act to regulate the meeting of the Orphans Court of Anne-Arundel County. Passed Jan 28, 1829

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act it shall not be lawful for the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county to meet oftener than once a month, except at the time of holding the county courts. To meet once a month

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said court shall meet on the third Monday of every month, and at each term of the county court, and shall sit, for the transaction of business, from nine o'clock A. M. until three o'clock P. M. and that the sessions of said court shall not at any time exceed three days, except at the time of holding the county courts of said county, when the said orphans court may sit during the whole term of said county courts, if necessary, for the transaction of business. Times of meeting

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts that are inconsistent with, or repugnant to, the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed. Repeal

CHAP. XIII.

An Act to divorce Luke Ensor, of William, and Rachel his Wife, of the City of Baltimore. Passed Jan 31, 1829

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the marriage contract between Luke Ensor, of William, of Baltimore city, and Rachel his wife, be and the same is from henceforth and forever, absolutely annulled and declared to be void, to all intents and purposes, as if the same had never been solemnized. Marriage annulled

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That one half of the money arising from the sale of the property devised to Rachel Ensor, by Darby Ensor her father, be paid over by the executor of Darby Ensor to Rachel Ensor, and the remaining half be put out at interest by the said executor, for the benefit of her child, when it shall arrive at the age of twenty-one years, and the interest thereon to be paid to the said Rachel Ensor as the guardian of said child, and for the support of the same. Property devised to R. Ensor to be paid over to her

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That in case of the death of the child before its arrival at the age of twenty-one years, then the money which was to have been the child's, to become the property of the mother, who is hereby entitled to the custody and guardianship of the child. In case of death of child, property to go to mother