

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

LEVY COURT.

	Chap.
the amount to be levied. Empowered to execute and receive deeds,	96
Of Frederick county, to levy for the erection of a bridge over Monocacy river, at Lille's Ford,	34
— The like at or near William Miller's ford,	67
— To levy for building a roof over the bridge across Catoctin creek where the county road No. 89 crosses the creek,	42
— To levy for building a bridge over Catoctin creek at or near the place where the creek crosses the road from Frederick to Harper's Ferry,	146
— The Frederick and Harper's Ferry Road Company to pay to the clerk of the levy court the value of the bridge when built,	142
— To levy for repairing the road from Westminster, Taney-town, Emmitsburgh, to Troup's tavern,	111
— May levy an additional sum of money for building a suitable house for the poor of the county. May dispose of the farm lately purchased, for another farm, and make a conveyance to the purchaser. May appoint a keeper of the poor's house, and manager of the farm. May make allowances to the trustees of the poor and their clerk,	152
— To levy annually for the use of sundry poor persons,	168
Of Montgomery county, to appoint supervisors in election districts. Their duties. Inspectors of public roads to report the number of miles of public roads in the county,	115
— Certain sections of the act of 1826, ch. 227, repealed,	Ib.
— Convenient roads may be assigned to supervisors,	Ib.
— To levy annually for the use of sundry poor persons,	168
Of Prince-George's county, to convey certain lots in Nottingham, to Chew and Biscoe,	121
— To levy annually for the use of sundry poor persons,	168
Of Queen-Anne's county, vested with all the powers of the commissioners	