

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

LEVY COURT.

	Chap.
of the tax. The court to consist of five members, one from each election district. Their powers and duties prescribed,	14
— To levy for the relief of Henrietta Booker,	59
Of Somerset county, to appoint the commissioners of the tax,	15
— To establish a Ferry on Pocomoke river from Pollitt's Landing,	86
— To examine the claim of Mason Abbott, and if reasonable to allow it,	49
— Their proceedings in allowing 8 per cent. commission for the collection of the county levy in 1828, confirmed,	52
— To alter and straighten the public road which leads across Dame's Quarter Neck,	124
Of Talbot county, may cause the roof of the court-house to be covered with slate, &c. and to draw on the treasurer of the western shore for $250 for that purpose,	81
— To levy annually for the use of sundry poor persons,	168
Of Washington county, to levy for erecting a bridge over Antietam near the old bridge on Hitt's farm,	84
Of Worcester county, to appoint commissioners to lay off the county into election districts,	17
— Also to appoint persons to be judges of the elections,	17
— To levy annually in favour of sundry poor persons,	168
See Commissioners.

LIBERTY-TOWN.

The side walks in the town to be preserved,	8
The trustees to whom part of a lot of ground was conveyed for the erection of a market-house, authorised to convey it to certain trustees for the purpose of erecting a house of public worship,	153

LICENSES.

The act of 1827, ch. 117, regulating the issuing of licenses to traders, ordinary keepers, and others, is not to apply to persons who do not buy or sell with a view to profit in the regular prosecution of some trade or business. Other regulations prescribed,	83
--	----