

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That all such part or parts of any act of Assembly, as are inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed. CHAP. 13.
Repeal.

CHAPTER 14.

An act for the benefit of Henry W. Fitzhugh, now of the city of Annapolis. Passed Jan. 21, 1830

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Henry W. Fitzhugh, an officer of the United States' Army, now stationed in the city of Annapolis, be, and he is hereby authorized to remove into this state the three following negro slaves, viz: Franky, Nancy and William, and them to retain as slaves, so long as he may remain an officer of the United States' Army, and stationed in this state; Provided nevertheless, That nothing herein contained, shall be construed to authorize a sale or disposition of said slaves in this states, otherwise than by bequest, in a course of distribution, or by operations of laws. Permission given.

CHAPTER 15.

An act for the relief of George Shover, of Loudon county, Virginia, and now confined for debt in the jail of Allegany county. Passed Jan 21, 1830

WHEREAS, it appears to this General Assembly, that George Shover, late a citizen of Loudon county, Virginia, is confined in the jail of Allegany county for debt, and for no other cause—Therefore, Freamble

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That George Shover, upon his compliance with all the requisitions of the insolvent laws of this state, except that which require a residence in this state for two years previous to the application for the benefit of the insolvent law, shall be discharged from further confinement in said jail, and shall be entitled to every immunity and privilege that he would have been entitled to, if he had complied with the said requisition of residence. Insolvent act to be amended in.