

Passed Jan. 11, 1830.

An act to incorporate the Protestant Episcopal Sunday School Society of St. Paul's Parish, Baltimore.

Corporate power granted.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Reverend William Edward Wyatt, D. D. Rector of St. Paul's Parish, in Baltimore county, and his successors in the Rectorship, John Gibson, Isaac McKim, Samuel J. Donaldson, Edward G. Woodyear, John B. Morris, William Lorman, George C. Grundy, Thomas B. Grundy, Hugh D. Evans, and the other patrons, officers, managers and members of the voluntary association, called the Protestant Episcopal Sunday School Society of St. Paul's Parish, Baltimore, with the successors of the officers and managers, and all other persons hereafter admitted members, shall be and they are hereby incorporated and declared a body corporate and politic, by the name of "The Protestant Episcopal Sunday School Society of St. Paul's Parish, Baltimore," and shall have perpetual succession, power to sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded, to make and have a common seal, and to break and alter the same at their pleasure, to make bye laws as they may think fit, and the same to alter at their pleasure, to provide for the mode of admitting new members into the corporation, the election of officers and managers, to receive voluntary contributions, and to hold property, real, personal and mixed, not exceeding in the whole the value of ten thousand dollars.

CHAPTER 34.

Passed Jan 16, 1830.

An act to change the time of holding the November term of Queen Anns County Court.

Repeal

Section 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That so much of an Act of Assembly, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-eight, chapter of hundred and eighty-two, as relates to the holding of Queen Anns County Court, on the third Monday in the month of November, be and the same is hereby repealed.

Time fixed.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That from and after the passage of this act, the said Court shall be holden at Centerville, in said county, on the first Monday of November, in each and every year thereafter, instead of the third Monday, as now provided by said act of Assembly.