

ses may or can do or perform; and the said Trustees and their successors, or a majority of them, shall have full power and authority to have, make and use, one common seal, with such devices and inscriptions as they shall think proper; and therewith to pass and authenticate the certificates, acts and orders of the said corporation; and the same seal, at their pleasure, to break, alter and renew.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the said Trustees and their successors, or a majority of them, from time to time, and at all times hereafter, shall have full power and authority to constitute and appoint professors, teachers and assistants, for instructing the students and scholars of said Academy in such sciences and branches of education, as they shall think proper and suitable to be taught therein, and to make fundamental ordinances or regulations for the good government of the said Academy, and the instruction of the youth as aforesaid, and by these ordinances to appoint such number of their own body, not less than three, as they may think proper, to be a quorum or committee for transacting all general and necessary business of the said Academy, and making temporary rules for the management thereof; and also, by the said ordinances to delegate to the professors and teachers, such powers and authorities as they shall think expedient for the standing government and discipline of the said Academy, and the execution of the regulations thereof; and also, by the said ordinances, to make such regulations for the direction, visitation and examination of the said Academy, and the students and scholars therein as shall best promote the important objects of the institution; Provided always That the said ordinances be not repugnant to the constitution and the laws of this State.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted. That the said Trustees and their successors, or a majority of them, shall meet at least twice in every year, in stated semi-annual meetings, to be appointed by their own ordinances, and at such other times as by their said ordinances, or by their own adjournments they may direct; and when so assembled, they shall have power from time to time to appoint a President, Treasurer and Secretary; to make contracts with the professors or teachers, relative to the instruction of the scholars to be placed under their care, and for the payment of their salaries; to examine the progress of the students and scholars in their learning; to hear and determine on all complaints and appeals, and upon all matters touching the discipline and government of the said Academy and the execution of their ordinances; and generally to manage the estate and concerns of the said Academy in such manner as they shall deem best for the advancement and advantage of the institution.

General power

Provided

General meetings