

CHAP. 55. executor of William Tilghman, deceased, has full power and authority to sell out of this state for their respective terms of service, the following negroes, viz: Rachel, George, Shadrack, Nancy, Thomas, Julia, Benjamin, Mary, Frederick, Margaret, Martha, Ann, Nancy, Sarah, Samuel, Maria, Samuel, son of Rachel, Abraham, Charlotte, Rebecca, Rachel, daughter of Esther, Joseph and Harry, slaves for a term of years, to any person or persons in the state of Delaware, who have or may obtain permission from the legal authorities of that state to remove them into it, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Conditions prescribed

Sec. 2. [ ] And the said Benjamin Chew, jun. is required to take from the purchaser or purchasers, a bond, in a penalty of one thousand dollars, with good and sufficient security, residing in this state, with condition that said negroes shall not be removed out of the state of Delaware during their term of service; and said bond shall be recorded in the clerk's office of Queen Anne's county court; and the said Benjamin Chew, jun. named in this act, or his heirs, executors or administrators, shall have power to demand a certified copy of the same, upon which he or they, or either of them, may maintain an action in any county court of this state, and the damages recovered, after paying all the expenses of said action, shall be held in trust by the person so recovering, for the use and benefit of the negro or negroes removed from the said state of Delaware, and so much of said damages as may be necessary, shall be used in recovering and bringing back the negro or negroes removed.

CHAPTER 56.

Enacted Feb. 5, 1830 An act to preserve the Side Walks in the village of Liberty, in Frederick county.

Prohibition

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to ride, drive or lead any horse, or drive any team, carriage or other vehicle whatever, upon any pavement on the side walks in said village or its limits.

Penalty

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons, after the passage of this act, shall ride, drive or lead any horse, or drive any team, carriage or other vehicle whatsoever, upon any pavement, on the side walks in said village or its limits, such person or persons so offending, shall forfeit and pay for each and every offence, the sum of two dollars, to be recovered in the name of the state of Maryland, before any justice of the peace, as other small debts are recovered, and
