

to be appropriated to the improvement of the side walks in said village.

CHAP. 56.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of any constable in Liberty district, in whose view any offence against the provisions of this act shall be committed, to give information thereof, upon oath, before some justice of the peace for said county, unless the offender pay said fine to the constable, who is hereby authorised to receive it.

Constables duty.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of any justice of the peace, and any justice is hereby authorised and required, upon oath made by a constable or other creditable person, that an offence has been committed, by driving any team, carriage or other vehicle whatever, or by riding, driving or leading any horse over the side walks in said village, or its limits, to issue his warrant against the offender, directed to some constable of the district, whose duty it shall be to arrest and carry such offender before some justice of the peace for said county, to answer said information and complaint, and any justice, upon proof of the commission of such offence by such person, shall give judgment for said fine and costs, upon which judgment there shall be no supersedeas. Justices of the peace and constables shall be entitled to the same fees in every respect, as in cases of the recovery of small debts.

Warrant—proceedings thereon.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the constable, within thirty days after the collection of any fine or fines, as aforesaid, to pay over the same unto Abraham Jones and Thomas Carr, superintendents, elected by the citizens of Liberty to receive it, and unto their successors as may be hereafter annually elected by the legal voters of said village on the first Monday of January in each and every year; and upon neglect of the constable, or refusal so to do, the same proceedings shall, in every respect, be had against him for the recovery thereof, at the suit of said superintendents or their successors, elected as aforesaid, as above prescribed, for offenders against this act; and it shall be the duty of the superintendents to apply the money as above directed, subject to the same proceedings for neglect or refusal to pay it over to their successors, as above laid down.

Payment over to superintendents.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act contained shall be construed so as to extend to any person or persons who shall not have had notice of its provisions by a publication of this act in two of the newspapers printed in Frederick city, three successive weeks, next after the first day of April next; neither shall the same be so construed as to render liable to pay a fine for the violation of its provisions, any person or persons, their servants or visitors, to pass across said foot-walks in going from or returning to the premises of which he or she may be in joint or several possession.

Publication required.

Exceptions.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That the act entitled, an act to preserve the [said] walks in the village of Liberty, in Freder-

Report: