

Isaacs and Benjamin Ogle, jun. and on the part of Anne Arundel county, Benjamin Gaither and James Marriott; and the said commissioners, or a majority of them, are authorised and empowered, as soon as may be convenient, to cause the said bridge to be rebuilt or repaired, of sound and good materials, and completed in the best and most substantial manner, and they or a majority of them, are, by this act, fully authorised and empowered to agree with a contractor or contractors, for rebuilding or repairing said bridge, or they may purchase materials, and hire workmen and laborers, to complete the same, as they in their discretion may think best; and in either case, the said bridge shall be rebuilt or repaired under the immediate direction and superintendance of the said commissioners, or a majority of them.

Sec. 3. And it enacted, That if either of the said commissioners shall die or remove out of the county in which he is a commissioner, before the completion of said bridge, or shall refuse to act, the commissioner who shall have been appointed to act with him, may appoint some other person, resident of the county in which he was a commissioner, to act in his place, and the person so appointed shall have the same powers and authorities as are vested in the commissioners by this act.

Case of vacancy:

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That as soon as said bridge shall be rebuilt or repaired as directed by this act, the same shall be considered a public bridge, and shall hereafter be rebuilt or repaired by the counties aforesaid.

Declared public.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the commissioners aforesaid, or a majority of them, shall render to the justices of the levy court of Prince Georges' county, and the commissioners for Anne Arundel county, at their meeting next after the expenditure of said money, a true, full and fair account of all the money by them laid out and expended by virtue of this act in rebuilding or repairing said bridge, and that the said levy court and commissioners in their respective counties, shall make such compensation to the said commissioners as they in their judgment shall think proper.

Account—compensation
