

CHAP. 165. and so in proportion for any greater or smaller quantity which they shall weigh; and they shall be entitled to receive two cents, and no more, for ever nett hundred of hay or straw thus weighed, until the weight of the load amounts to twenty hundred: and in no case shall they demand or receive more than forty cents for any load of hay or straw thus weighed by them: and they shall be governed by the same rules and regulations as are now in force, except such as are inconsistent with, or repugnant to, the provisions of this act.

Compensation fixed.

CHAPTER 165.

Passed Feb 27, 1830. A supplement to the act entitled, an act concerning the Washington Monument, passed at December session eighteen hundred and twenty-six, chapter two hundred and forty-five.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, by the act to which this is a supplement, it is provided, that the Washington Monument shall be held and considered as the property of the state; and the managers appointed by law to erect the said monument, have represented officially, that since the passage of the said act, the sum of about ten thousand dollars has been expended for labor and materials in the progress towards completing the said monument, over and above the amount paid to them in virtue of the said act, and that the further sum of ten thousand dollars, will be required to pay for the work and materials which will be furnished and performed during the present year; Therefore:

Treasurer to issue certificates of stock

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Treasurer for the Western Shore, be, and he is hereby authorised to issue and deliver to the said managers, certificates of the stock of the state bearing interest at the rate of five per centum, per annum, payable quarter yearly, to the amount of ten thousand dollars, on the first day of April next; the further amount of five thousand dollars on the first day of July next; and the further amount of five thousand dollars on the first day of October next: in such not less than one thousand dollars each, and all stock so issued in virtue of this act shall be redeemable at the pleasure of the state on three months notice.

Pledge for payment.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That so much of [ ] funds annually derived from state lotteries, not already appropriated, as shall be required to pay the quarter yearly interest on the stock authorised to be issued as aforesaid, is hereby appropriated to that purpose: and all the surplus that may be received from the state lotteries, annually, over and above the nett sum of twelve thousand dollars, which is applicable under the acts of eighteen hundred and twenty-four, chapter one