

CHAPTER 169.

CHAP 169.

An act to regulate the sale of Bread in Baltimore County.

Passed Feb 26, 1829

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, if any baker or other person residing in the city of Baltimore; shall sell or offer to sell Bread within the county of Baltimore, under other regulations than such as are prescribed by an ordinance of the city of Baltimore, approved the sixteenth of March, eighteen hundred and twenty-six, so far as relates to the weight and quality of the bread, such Baker or other person, shall forfeit and pay for each and every offence, the sum of five dollars, to go to the informer, and to be recovered on warrant before a Justice of the Peace, as in cases of debt.

Regulation

CHAPTER 170.

An act authorising the election of Trustees to adjust and settle the affairs of the Elkton Bank

Passed Feb 26, 1829

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the stockholders of the Elkton Bank, be, and they are hereby authorised, at their next annual meeting, held in pursuance of their charter, to elect two persons as trustees, who shall have power to adjust and settle all the outstanding debts and credits of said Bank, and who shall be privileged to sue, and be liable to be sued, in the same manner as the president and directors of the said Bank are now privileged, or liable to sue, or be sued, and the said trustees shall be elected in the same manner as the said president and directors have heretofore been elected, and in their place and stead.

Elect two trustees
—empowered

Sec. 2 And be it enacted, That all conveyances heretofore made to the said president and directors, of real, personal or mixed property, whether limited by lease, mortgage, or otherwise, be, and they are hereby transferred to the said trustees, who shall have power to dispose of them, or either of them in any manner, for the benefit of said stockholders.

Transfer of property

Sec 3. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said trustees at every annual meeting, after the passage of this act, to exhibit to the said stockholders, a just and true statement of all their doings, as trustees of a Bank; and they shall divide the balance which may be in their hands, after the payment of all the debts of the Bank, fairly, amongst the stockholders in proportion to the number of shares they may hold of the stock of said Bank.

Duty of trustees