CHAPTER 178.

Passed Feb 27, 1836. A supplement to the act, entitled, "An act incorporating the Masonic Hall and Masonic Lodge, in the County of Chester, and a capital stock therein maintained," passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-six, chapter one hundred and thirty-six.

Preamble

WHEREAS, by the original act, which is a supplement, a Masonic Hall was authorized to be erected in Chestertown, and a capital stock not exceeding three thousand dollars to be raised for the purpose of erecting said building; and whereas, as the said building is now completed and has cost more than the sum of three thousand dollars; and the stock subscribed for the same is owned by different persons, and some of them not masons; and whereas, it would be but reasonable and right, that the said stockholders should have the management and direction of the stock, instead of the Master and Wardens of the said Lodge, and that the sum of three thousand dollars not being sufficient for the purpose of erecting the said building, increase should be made therein: Therefore,

Capital—election

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the capital stock in the said Masonic Hall shall not exceed four thousand dollars, and that William Barroll, George W. Thomas and Joseph Wickes, fourth Esquires, be and are hereby appointed commissioners for the purpose of holding an election for a President and five Directors, who shall be stockholders, after giving five days notice by advertisement, set up in the most public places in Chestertown, which said persons when elected shall be styled "The President and Directors of the Masonic Hall Company in Chestertown," and as such and their successors be and are hereby declared a body corporate, and as such and by that name, may sue and
