

CHAP. 180.

CHAPTER 180.

Passed Feb. 27, 1829. An act to Divorce William Kempton and Matilda his wife, of the City of Baltimore.

Absolute divorce. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the marriage contract between William Kempton, of Baltimore city, and Matilda his wife, be, and the same is, from henceforth and forever, absolutely annulled, and declared to be void, to all intents and purposes, as if the same had never been solemnized.

CHAPTER 181.

Passed Feb. 27, 1829. An act relating to the Baltimore Second Dispensary.

Name changed. Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Baltimore Second Dispensary, shall hereafter, be called and known by the name of the Baltimore Eastern Dispensary, and by the President and Directors thereof, shall hereafter be subject to all the obligations and duties, and have and exercise all the rights and powers which they might have had or exercised, if the said name had not been changed, and that the said corporation shall have power to pass such further rules and by laws, as may be necessary and proper, to carry this act into effect, not inconsistent with the laws of this State, or of the United States, And provided, That nothing herein contained, shall be so construed as to enable the incorporators to carry on any trade or business unconnected with the immediate object of this act.

Previous.

Limits defined. Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That all the powers and duties of the President and Directors of the Baltimore Second Dispensary, heretofore established east of Harford Run, in the city of Baltimore, be, and the same are hereby extended westwardly within the limits of said city, to Jones Falls, Provided however, That by an arrangement between the said institution, and the general Dispensary, the attending Physicians of either institution, may by their respective boards of directors, be required to attend patients within the limits of the other, and if the two Dispensaries aforesaid, should hereafter agree upon any change of their respective limits, the same is hereby authorised to be made, in which event each institution shall make and preserve amongst its proceedings, suitable and descriptive entries thereof.

Appointment of officers. Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the President, Apothecary or resident Physician, Treasurer and Secretary of the said corporation, shall be annually appointed by a board of Directors, a majority of whom shall concur in such appointment,