

ture, or of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, to levy and collect such tax upon the property of said corporation, as may be laid upon individual property, or to levy and collect such tax upon their public exhibitions, as may be levied on such exhibitions in any other part of the said city, or of this State.

CHAP. 196.

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That this charter shall continue and be in force, until the year eighteen hundred and forty-five, and to the end of the session of the Legislature next thereafter.

Duration of charter

CHAPTER 197.

An additional supplement to an act entitled, "an act for the better regulation of the Militia of the city of Baltimore."

Passed Feb 26 1830

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in lieu of the parades which are now ordered by law, all the officers, non commissioned officers, privates and musicians, composing the brigades of the third division, shall assemble for inspection and militia duty on the days hereinafter mentioned, and as herein directed, viz: The first brigade of artillery on the first Monday in May; the light brigade on the second Monday in May; the third brigade on the second Tuesday in May; and the fourteenth brigade on the second Wednesday in May, in each and every year, at eight o'clock in the morning, at such place or places as the commanding officers of their respective brigades may appoint.

Present parades revoked

Brigade parades fixed

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That if any non commissioned officer, private or musician, whose duty it shall be to attend the meeting as directed, shall refuse or neglect so to do, he shall forfeit and pay a sum not less than one dollar nor more than three dollars, to be fixed and ascertained by the Court of Appeals, and recorded in the manner pointed out in the third section of the first supplement to the original act.

Penalty for neglect to parade.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the generals of brigade, with the commanding officers of regiment and extra battalions of their respective commands, shall form and constitute a board, whose duty it shall be to appoint one or more fit and suitable persons to act as collectors for their respective brigades, to receive from said collectors a bond to the State with sufficient security for the due and faithful performance of their duties, to allow to the said collectors such compensation as they may deem just and necessary, and to examine and audit the accounts of said collectors on the third Monday of September in each and every year.

Appoint brigade collectors &c.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the lists of fines whether incurred by officers or soldiers shall be delivered to the said

Their duties