they are hereby authorised, to levy on the assessable property of said county, in addition to the sum authorised by the original act to which this is a supplement, a sum of money not exceeding one hundred dollars, for the purpose of building a roof over the bridge mentioned in said act; Provided, that before such levy shall be made, the levy court shall believe it advantageous to the county to have a roof erected over said bridge.

CHAP. XLIII.

Passed Feb 11, 1829

An Additional Supplement to an Act, entitled, An act for the appointment of Commissioners for the regulation and improvement of Cambridge in Dorchester County, and to establish and regulate a Market in said Town.

Preamble

WHEREAS by a supplement to said act, passed at December session eighteen hundred and twenty-one, chapter two hundred and three, section four, the commissioners of Cambridge were invested with authority to appoint an overseer or overseers to repair and improve the streets and alleys of Cambridge, and a portion of the road adjoining thereto, the said overseers to be answerable to the said commissioners for the performance of their duties: And whereas this exclusive jurisdiction has proved experimentally defective; therefore,

Penalty on overseers for not keeping streets in repair.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the person appointed by the commissioners of the town of Cambridge, overseer of the streets and alleys in said town shall, for not keeping in good repair the said streets and alleys, and any other road of which he has the legal superintendence, be liable to be proceeded against, fined and punished, in the same manner that overseers of the public roads in Dorchester county are proceeded against, fined and punished, for not keeping their respective roads in good repair; Provided, nothing herein contained shall be construed to exempt, in other respects, said overseer from the control and jurisdiction of said commissioners.
