

CHAPTER 205.

CHAP. 205.

An act for the shutting up of a part of Lovegrove Alley, in the city of Baltimore.

Passed Feb 20, 1829

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the proprietors of the lots fronting on Lovegrove Alley, in the city of Baltimore, hereinafter mentioned, be, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to shut up all that part of Lovegrove Alley, extending from Monument-street, north, to an alley to be opened by the said proprietors, through their property, from Washington Place, east, to Lovegrove alley; Provided, the aforesaid proprietors shall open the said alley, through their property, from Washington Place to Lovegrove Alley, as aforesaid.

Permission to close

Proviso.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That when an alley shall be opened, as above provided, from Washington Place to Lovegrove Alley, the same shall be and remain a public highway forever: and the right and title to that part of Lovegrove Alley which shall be shut up, in pursuance of the provisions of this act, shall be, and the same is hereby declared to be vested in fee simple, in those persons who now own the ground on both sides of the same, as tenants in common.

Alley declared public

Property vested

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act contained, shall have any effect, operation, or validity, until the same shall be approved by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore.

Ratification required

CHAPTER 206.

An act to open and extend Eutaw Street, in the city of Baltimore

Passed Feb 20, 1829

WHEREAS, It has been represented to this General Assembly, that Commissioners were appointed according to law, to ascertain the damages which would be sustained by the extension of Eutaw-street northwardly, as far as its intersection with the northwest side of Madison-street, according to its location, in pursuance of the general act of 1817; which commissioners proceeded to the execution of their duty, by completing the ascertainment of damages as aforesaid, amounting, with the expenses thereof, to the sum of eleven hundred and three dollars; a regular return and record of which they have made to the register of the city of Baltimore: AND WHEREAS, no power now exists in the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, to levy and assess the damages, so as aforesaid ascertained, by the extension of the street aforesaid, on the holders and proprietors of the property benefited thereby:

Preamble.