Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That if any vacancy in said board of commissioners should occur, by the refusal to act, resignation, death, or other inability of any of the said commissioners, the remainder of said commissioners, or so many of them as may consent to act, shall supply such vacancy by a new appointment or appointments; and a majority of said commissioners shall be competent to perform the duties of said board.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That each of the said commissioners shall be allowed two dollars per day for every day that they shall be necessarily employed in carrying into effect the provisions of this law; and that the said city collector shall be allowed a commission of four per cent. on all sums of money which he shall collect in virtue of this law.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That said commissioners before making the return to the register as required by the first section of this act, shall give ten day notice thereof, in one of the newspapers of the city of Baltimore, in order that the persons interested may avail themselves of their right to appeal, and if no appeal be made within thirty days from the first publication of said notice, then said return shall be final and conclusive.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons who shall be dissatisfied with the assessment or levy which shall be made by the said commissioners, may within thirty days from the first publication of said notice as required by the fifth section of this act, appeal therefrom by petition in writing to the judges of Baltimore city court, praying the said judges to review the same; and on any such appeal being made, the said judges or a majority of them, or the chief judge, if the city court shall not be in session, may and shall appoint a day for hearing the said appeal, which shall not be less than five nor more than twenty days after the expiration of the thirty days, limited for making appeals as aforesaid; and shall direct the clerk of the said court to issue a subpoena duces tecum to the register of the city of Baltimore, requiring him to produce and deliver to the said court the return made to him by the said commissioners, and all plots, documents, books and papers connected with the same, and the said judges of Baltimore city court, or a majority of them, shall have full power to meet at the time so appointed, and hear and fully examine the subject, and decide on the said appeal or appeals, and for that purpose they are hereby authorized and empowered to adjourn from
