

CHAP. 211. of the company to effect the objects aforesaid, and in payment of the necessary expenses of the company; to provide for declaring dividends of the profits made by the company, and for paying the same in just proportion to the stockholders; and generally to do or authorise all such acts, make and lawfully exercise all such deeds and other writings, and make, revise, or annul all such by-laws, ordinances, resolutions, rules and regulations, as shall be necessary and competent to the full and beneficial exercise of, and carrying into effect the above enumerated powers, or for the useful and convenient accomplishment of the object of their incorporation, and for the exercise and use of all other powers and privileges granted by this act, and thereby vested in the Baltimore sugar refining company incorporated as aforesaid, for the purposes therein mentioned; Provided always, That such by-laws, rules and regulations, shall not be contrary to the laws of this State, or of the United States.

Responsibilities.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That all the joint stock, capital funds, property and effects of the said company, shall be answerable for all the contracts made by or for the said company, either verbally, or in writing, with or without their corporate seal, by any of their known officers or agents, and for all just claims against the said company; but none of the stockholders shall be liable in person or property, for any contracts of or for, or any claims against the said corporation; and the service of legal process on the president or any director, shall be sufficient service on the company.

Rights reserved.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act contained, shall be construed to restrict the right of the Legislature, which is hereby reserved in its fullest extent, to impose from time to time, and at all times hereafter, and levy such reasonable tax by license or otherwise upon all property, estate and funds in which the capital stock of said company shall be invested, in common with similar property, estate or funds of any other company, corporation or individuals of this State.

Duration.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That this act shall continue and be in force until the first day of January, in the year eighteen hundred and sixty, and until the end of the next session of Assembly thereafter.
