

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

Chap. Sec.

BALTIMORE COUNTY COURT.

- Witnesses once summoned on a case shall continue to attend from term to term until the case is disposed of, without any new subpoena, 4
- At all times when the court is in session it shall be competent for said court or one of the judges thereof &c. to hear and decide on all cases in equity, all proceedings in relation to the division of real estate of persons who have died intestate, and all motions and actions at law except jury trials, as well cases originating in the county as in the city, 200 5
- Relating to the summons of juries for, 6
- Clerk of, shall not issue any writ of certiorari directed to a justice of the peace of, for the removal of any proceedings pending before said justice, unless in addition to the petition and affidavit heretofore required, the party &c. shall produce before said clerk a person or persons, as security, who shall, after testifying on oath &c. his sufficiency, acknowledge himself as special bail, which shall be binding &c. 7
- On entering such bail and paying the clerk the tax, as for an original writ, which tax shall be accounted for &c. the clerk shall issue a writ of certiorari without requiring the seal of the judge, 7
- The clerk shall docket every action so removed, on the same docket as appeals from the judgment of justices of the peace, and at the time of issuing every such writ, the clerk shall issue subpoena to the other party &c. as in cases of appeal; and proceedings shall be had as in cases of appeal &c. 7
- On all judgments confessed and decrees passed by consent in, on the city docket of said court, on suits hereafter instituted in law or equity, a stay of execution for thirty days after the entry, 8
- On petition of any insolvent debtor against whom the commissioners of insolvent debtors may have reported unfavourably, shall fully examine into the case, and if there be any charges of fraud, &c. to cause issues to be framed and tried in a summary way, without the forms of action, to determine the truth