

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

Chap. Sec.

ORPHANS COURT	expenditure; report annually to the Legislature; direct regular records to be kept; fill vacancies in board of commissioners &c, Of Anne Arundel county; repealing the act of 1828, chapter 12, to regulate the meetings of; and prescribing the time and hours of meetings hereafter, (Of Baltimore county authorised to bind out the children of Peter and Jane Lapourille, Of this State authorised, on application of any security, or person interested in the estate of a security of an executor, or administrator, to call upon such administrator &c to give counter security, and on his failure to do so, may revoke his letters of Administration and appoint another &c, On failure of such administrator to deliver over the property &c. of the deceased, may compel delivery by attachment and sequestration of property, and also direct the bond &c. to be put in suit, On application of any person who may be interested in the estate of a security of a guardian &c. may require counter security &c. and the same proceedings shall be had &c. shall have the same power to appoint guardians to females under the age of eighteen years, as they have &c. under the age of sixteen years, Of Dorchester county authorised to appoint their crier,	27  43  94 4  216 1  216 1  216 4  216 5  179
---------------	--	---

ORPHANS SOCIETY OF ANNAPO-LIS. . . . .

See Female.

OYSTERS. . . . .

Any citizen of this State may locate and appropriate in any of the bays, sounds, rivers, creeks, or coves, not exceeding one acre in extent, for the purpose of sowing oysters or other shell-fish, and when so deposited &c. they shall be his rightful property, Provided he shall have staked or marked off, so