

CHAP. 59.

sons whatsoever, and vest in the proprietors of the Susquehannah canal a complete title to the land therein described; and that should exceptions be filed to the said return within the time above limited, they shall be heard and determined at the next ensuing term of the said county court by the judges thereof.

Proprietors to meet annually

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That from and after the passage of this act, the proprietors of the Susquehannah canal shall meet annually in the city of Baltimore, within thirty days after the first day of February in each and every year, at which meeting the proprietors of the Susquehannah canal, or a majority of the proprietors attending thereat, shall proceed to elect, by ballot, a governor, three directors, a secretary and a treasurer; that previous to said meeting twenty days public notice shall be given thereof in one or more newspapers published in the city of Baltimore; and that in case no meeting or election should be held or made as herein provided, the officers of the said corporation shall continue to act until such meeting shall be had or election made.

Penalty for injuring fences, &c

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall break down or intentionally injure, any fence or fences, or other obstructions placed across the towing-path of said canal, for the purpose of protecting the banks of said canal from being cut up and destroyed by wheeled vehicles, such person or persons shall each be liable to a fine of forty dollars for each and every offence, to be recovered in the name of the proprietors of the Susquehannah canal, as small debts are now recoverable.

Repeal:

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That all acts of assembly repugnant to, or inconsistent with this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

CHAP. LX.

Passed Feb 11, 1829 An Act to Incorporate The Baltimore Flint Glass Company.

Subscriptions authorized

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William Patterson, Samuel Moore, George Bailey, Nathaniel Whitaker, Julius T. Ducatel, Christian Keener, Joseph K. Stapleton, George H. Keerl, and John Chapman, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners, under the direction of whom, or of any three or more of whom, subscriptions may be received to the capital stock of The Baltimore Flint Glass Company, in shares of one hundred dollars each; and they, or any three or more of them, may cause a subscription book to be prepared and opened at such time and place, and after giving such public notice as they shall direct, for receiving subscriptions to the said capital stock; which book shall be continued open at least