

CHAP. 89. shall pass, shall value and ascertain the damages incurred by any person or persons through whose land the said road shall be made, taking into consideration the advantages and disadvantages, (if any,) and the damages so ascertained shall be levied and assessed as other county charges are, and when collected shall be paid to the persons thereunto entitled.

Direction of road in Frederick

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That the commissioners herein named residing in Frederick county, in conjunction with Alexander M'Ilhenny and Silas Hibbard, shall be authorised to survey, lay out and open, a road of the width herein before mentioned, on the best and most direct route, from Alexander Warfield's mill aforesaid, to New-Windsor in Frederick county, and thence in the best and most direct route to Union town, in the same county; and the road, when so opened and laid out, shall be perpetual, and kept in repair by the levy court of Frederick county, as other public roads now are; and the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall make out and return a plat of said road to the clerk of Frederick county court, who shall record the same; and the commissioners hereby authorised to act shall receive the compensation herein before allowed, for similar duties, to be levied and paid as before directed, by the levy court of Frederick county; and in valuing and condemning land for said road, and returning the costs and expenses of the same, they shall take the oaths, or affirmations, and in all respects observe the mode herein before prescribed for the government of the commissioners authorised to lay out roads by the foregoing sections of this act.

CHAP. XC.

Passed Feb 27, 1823 An Act to incorporate the Maryland Society for promoting the Culture of the Vine.

Preamble

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of William M'Donald, Henry W. Rogers, Zebulon Waters, John C. S. Monkur, Philip Poultney, James Cox, William Gibson, John B. Morris, Richard G. Belt, Benjamin I. Cohen, George Fitzhugh, junior, Charles C. Harper, William G. Jones, Walter Price, Robert Sinclair, James R. Williams and Richard Caton, that they are desirous of being incorporated, for the purpose of introducing into the state of Maryland, and into our country generally, the extensive cultivation of the vine; therefore, Stockholders incorporated

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said petitioners, together with all such persons as are now, or may hereafter become stockholders, be and they are hereby created one body corporate, by the name of The Maryland Society for Promoting the Culture