

CHAPTER 232.

CHAP. 232.

An act for the payment of the Journal of Accounts.

Passed Mar 1, 1830

WHEREAS, it appears by the Journal of Accounts of this session, that there is due from this State, the sum of thirty-three thousand nine hundred and ninety-one dollars, and seventy-four cents; Therefore,

Preamble

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Treasurer of the Western Shore, be, and he is hereby authorised and required, to pay the several persons, their executors, administrators, assigns or orders, or to such of them as shall offer to receive the same, the several sums of current money allowed to them respectively, as they appear to be settled and ascertained by the said Journal of Accounts, out of any money now in the Treasury, or that shall come into the Treasury, subject to the appropriation of the General Assembly.

Payment directed

CHAPTER 233.

A supplement to the act, entitled, "an act to authorise the laying out and opening a Road, through Frederick, Anne Arundel and Montgomery Counties.

Passed Mar 1, 1830

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly of Maryland by petition, that the commissioners therein named, proceeded as authorised, and laid out a Road from Alexander Warfield's Mill to New Windsor, in Frederick county, and thence to Union town in said county; the petitioners also represent that they inadvertently omitted making Crook's on the old Liberty road, a point in the location of said road as was intended, and fully understood by the petitioners. The said commissioners named therein, proceeded and laid out said road contrary to the wishes and understanding of your petitioners, and did not make Crook's a point as wished; Therefore,

Preamble.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Jesse Slingluff, Jacob Landis and Silas Hibbard, shall be and they are authorised to [receive] said road, and to amend the location already made, from a point in a wood, about equi-distant from Nichodemus and Sauder's fields, to intersect the old Liberty road at Crook's, and then along said old Liberty road to intersect the former location; and the said commissioners or any two of them shall make out and return a plat of said road, so far as amended, to the clerk of Frederick county court, who shall record the same: and the commissioners herein named, shall receive the same compensation, and be

Commissioners to amend location