

CHAP. 101.

every respect to be finished in a workmanlike manner, and for a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars.

Levy directed

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the commissioners of Baltimore county, be, and they are hereby authorised and required to levy upon the assessable property of said county, within two years from the passage of this act, the amount specified in the first section of this act, for the building of said Bridge, to be collected as other county levies are collected, and to be paid over to the Bridge Commissioners above named.

Account—majority

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the said Bridge Commissioners shall keep an accurate account of their expenditures in erecting the said Bridge, and in case there shall be any moneys left after the said Bridge is completed, it shall be paid over to the county commissioners, to be by them applied to the benefit of the county; a majority of the said Bridge Commissioners shall be competent to transact any business relative thereto.

Accountability

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the said Bridge Commissioners shall be held accountable to the County Commissioners aforesaid, for the respective sums of money so put in their hands, for the faithful expenditure thereof, in the erection of said Bridge.

Vacancy, &c

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That if either of the commissioners named in this act, shall resign, die, or remove out of the county, it shall be the duty of the commissioners of Baltimore county to fill such vacancies; the commissioners named to superintend the building of said Bridge shall receive no remuneration for their services, unless the Baltimore County Commissioners shall deem it proper to allow them a compensation.

Notice

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the commissioners aforesaid to give notice in at least two of the daily newspapers published in the city of Baltimore, for two weeks, that they will receive proposals for the building of said Bridge.