

CHAP. 103.

Report on oath

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the said Trustee shall make a report, on oath, and render a just and true statement of her proceedings, in the premises, to the Orphans' Court aforesaid, and on her neglect so to do, her bond, as Trustee, shall be answerable for any damage occasioned by such neglect, and the Orphans' Court aforesaid, may allow the Trustee such compensation for her trouble as to them shall appear proper and reasonable, not exceeding ten per cent. on the amount of sales.

Compensation

Case of death of minor

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That if either or both the said children shall die before they shall arrive at the age of twenty-one years, the proceeds of the lands shall descend in the same manner as the land would have descended, if the same had not been sold.

Of the trustees

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That if the Trustee herein appointed, shall die before the sale or conveyance of the land herein authorised, to be sold and conveyed, then and in that case, the Orphans' Court of said county are hereby authorised and required to appoint a Trustee to carry into effect the several provisions of this act.

---

CHAPTER 103.

Passed Feb. 12, 1835 An act for the better payment of the members of the Levy Court of Frederick County.

Mileage allowance

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That each and every member of the Levy Court of Frederick county, who shall reside more than five miles from the place of holding said Court, shall, in addition to the per diem allowed him by law, be entitled an allowance of twelve and a half cents for every mile exceeding the first five miles that his place of residence shall be distant from the place of holding the said Court, to be allowed him in going to the said Court; to be levied, collected and paid, in the same manner, and at the same time, with his or their per diem allowance.