

CHAP. 113.

CHAPTER 112.

Passed Feb. 16, 1835

An act for the relief of Joseph Johnson.

Preamble

WHEREAS, Joseph Johnson, a colored man, now residing in Frederick county, purchased of Abdiel Unkefer, trustee for the sale of the effects of Samuel Creighton, a small farm, and received for the same a deed which has been properly recorded, and the said Johnson being desirous to sell said farm, but is doubtful whether he can give a legal title for the same, Therefore:

Authorized to sell and convey

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for Joseph Johnson, a colored man, to hold or transmit, devise or sell and convey the farm which he bought of Abdiel Unkefer, trustee for the sale of the effects of Samuel Creighton, and to make and deliver a deed from the same to the purchaser thereof, which deed when recorded, shall secure to the person so purchasing, all the right, title, and interest, purported to be conveyed by said deed of said Unkefer, to and in the said farm.

CHAPTER 113.

Passed Feb. 12, 1835

A supplement to an act, entitled, an act to Incorporate certain Trustees to build an Academy or School House, in or near the town of Manchester, in Baltimore County, to be known by the name and style of the Manchester United Academy or school.

Name changed

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the Manchester United Academy or School, in Baltimore county, shall be known by the name and style of the Manchester Academy; and that the said Academy and the trustees thereof, and their successors forever, shall have, hold, and enjoy all the rights, privileges and immunities that they have, hold and enjoy, under the name and style of the Manchester United Academy or School, under the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, or the provisions of any other act of the Assembly.
