Notice and directions on application for roads

SECTION I. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, whenever any citizens of Washington county, intend to petition the commissioners of said county, for opening, amending or closing of any road, they shall be required to give three weeks notice thereof, in one or more of the news papers published in said county, of such intention, for the purpose of giving an opportunity to all persons who may be opposed to the opening, amending or closing such road, to put in their counter petition, and whenever a counter petition shall be
