

and a diversity of practice relative thereto is understood to exist among justices of the peace, for remedy, wherefore: CHAP. 127.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the stay of execution, as allowed by law, under supersedeas, in cases of judgments rendered by justices of the peace, shall be reckoned and computed from the date of the rendition of the judgment, any law, usage, or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding. Direction to magistrates

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That in all cases wherein judgment shall be rendered in the County Courts of this State, at the second term after the deicendant or defendants shall have been arrested on the capias ad respondendum, under the act entitled, an act to prevent unnecessary accumulation of costs on all actions or suits at law, in the County Courts of this State, and its supplements, and the same shall be superseded, that the stay of execution as allowed by law under such supersedeas, shall be reckoned and computed from the first Thursday of the term next ensuing the said second term, when such judgment shall be rendered, and not from the date or filing of such supersedeas. Judgments of court

CHAPTER 127.

An act relating to two Public Roads, number six and number forty-eight, in Queen Anne's County. Passed Feb. 28, 1835

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Levy Court of Queen Anne's county are hereby authorised and required to pay annually to the commissioners for the time being, of the town of Centreville, in said county, or their order, a sum not less than one hundred and twenty dollars, to be used and expended by said commissioners in keeping in order, roads number six and number forty eight, in said county, the same lying mostly in the limits of said town. Levy directed

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the supervision and management of said roads, number six and number forty eight, shall, after the first Monday in April next, belong to the commissioners of the town of Centreville, who shall be liable to presentment, fine and punishment, for suffering said roads or either of them, to be out of order, that any super- Supervision