CHAPTER 173.

Passed Mar. 6, 1835 An act for the relief of Mary A. Abel, formerly Burwell.

Preamble

WHEREAS, it appears to this General Assembly, that a certain deed, for the purposes therein mentioned, executed by Mary Ann Burwell to William D. Beall, in the month of April, eighteen hundred and thirty three, was not acknowledged in the manner required by law, to render said deed valid and effectual, and it also appears that said omission was the result of accident and mistake;—Therefore,

Deed made valid

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said deed, executed as aforesaid, and recorded among the land records of Washington county, Liber O. O., folios one hundred and twenty-five, one hundred and twenty-six, and one hundred and twenty-seven, shall be; and the same is hereby declared to be, of the same validity and effect, to pass the property and estate, limited and expressed therein, as if such deed had been duly acknowledged and certified in the manner required by law; Provided, that nothing in said deed shall be taken to deprive creditors of the said Mary Ann Burwell, before her marriage with Lewis Abel, or creditors of the said Abel and wife, since their marriage, who are creditors for necessaries furnished to their family use, from satisfying their debts out of the property so conveyed.
