CHAP. 197.

An act to divorce Nancy Tharp, of Queen Anne's County, from her husband Richard Tharp. Passed Mar. 13, 1835

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Nancy Tharp, of Queen Anne's County, be henceforth divorced from her husband Richard Tharp, and the marriage heretofore had and solemnized between them, is declared to be henceforth and forever null and void, and they are hereby declared to be mutually released from all and every duty and obligation, benefit and advantage growing out and in consequence of the said marriage, and the said Nancy Tharp is hereby declared to be divorced a vinculo matrimonii.

CHAPTER 197.

An act to provide more effectually for the levy and collection of the tax imposed for the purpose of Colonizing the free people of color, of this State, by the act, entitled, an act relating to the people of color in this State, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty one, chapter two hundred and eighty one. Passed Mar. 13, 1835

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly, that the tax imposed upon the assessable property within the several counties and cities of this State, by the eighth section of an act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty one, chapter two hundred and eighty one, entitled, an act relating to the people of color in this State, has in many instances not even yet been levied in several of the counties, whilst in some others it has been duly levied, collected, and paid into the Treasury, Therefore:

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be and it is hereby made the absolute duty of the levy court or commissioner of the county, as the case may be, of the several counties of this State, and of the Mayor or City Council of the city of Baltimore, to levy on the assessable property within their several and respective counties, and the city of Baltimore annually hereafter, during the continuance of the act of December session, eighteen hundred and thirty one, chapter two hundred
