

CHAPTER 224.

CHAP. 225.

An act for the relief of William Strickland, an infant child of the late William Strickland. Passed Mar. 16, 1835

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That ^{Levy authorised} the Levy Court of Prince George's county, be, and they are hereby authorised and directed to levy on the assessable property of said county, a sum not exceeding twenty dollars per annum, so long as they may deem proper and necessary, for the support and maintenance of William Strickland, an infant child of the late William Strickland; which sum, when so levied and collected, shall be paid to W.B.C. Worthington, of said county, or his order, for the use and benefit of the said William Strickland.

CHAPTER 225.

A supplement to the act to regulate Fences in Dorchester and Caroline Counties, passed, at December session eighteen hundred and thirty three, chapter one hundred and nineteen. Passed Mar. 11, 1835

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That ^{Certain enclosures exempt} all lands in Dorchester and Caroline counties, where inclosures consisted at the time of the passage of the act, to which this is a supplement, either in part, or in whole, of any creek, river or bay, or do now consist in part, or in whole of such inclosures, the same shall be and hereby is exempted from the operation of the provisions of the said original act, so far as the said creeks, rivers, or bays, have been taken and considered as a part of said inclosure, but no further, And in all other cases the entire provisions of said original act, shall be taken and held to be in full force and effect, with the exception here made, as to the creeks, rivers, and bays in Dorchester and Caroline counties.