

CHAP. 227.

CHAPTER 226.

Passed Mar. 17, 1835 An act entitled an additional supplement to the act entitled an act for the distribution of a certain fund for the purpose of establishing Free Schools in the several Counties therein mentioned, so far as relates to Harford county.

Repeal

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That so much of the second section of an act passed thirteenth of March, eighteen hundred and thirty three, as directs the Orphans' court of Harford county, to place the school fund money of said county, in some Bank or Savings Institution as they may receive it, be and the same is hereby repealed, and the said Orphans' court are hereby authorised at their discretion to invest any surplus money in their hands belonging to the said school fund, in the manner they may deem most advantageous for the augmentation of said fund.

Investment authorised

District associates required

2. And be it enacted, That the Orphans' court of said county, shall after the passage of this act, require the Register of Wills of said county, to keep a separate and distinct account with each commissioner of the school fund of said county, for all receipts and disbursements.

Commissioners neglecting

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That if any commissioner of the school fund of said county, shall neglect or refuse to settle his or their account or accounts, as is required by existing laws with the Orphans' court of said county, for six months after the time required by law, it shall then be the duty of said Orphans' court, and they are hereby authorised and required to remove such delinquent commissioner or commissioners forthwith, and appoint some other duly qualified person or persons in his or their stead.

Removal directed

CHAPTER 227.

Passed Mar. 18, 1835 An act to authorise Thomas H. Buckner, of Charles County, to bring a certain slave into this State.

Permission granted

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Thomas H. Buckner, of Charles county, be and he is hereby authorised to bring into this State, his negro boy Willis Clark, a slave for life, upon complying with the terms and conditions of an act of Assembly, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty three, chapter eighty-