

CHAP. 237.

every year thereafter, at such time as they may think proper, each congregation as aforesaid, shall elect from their respective bodies, three persons; the said election shall be held for each congregation separately, under such regulations as each congregation may respectively adopt, and that those nine persons so elected, three from each congregation, shall constitute and form a board of trustees for the management of the affairs of the said congregations.

Treasurers

By laws

Sec 4. And be it enacted, That each congregation shall keep a separate treasury, and each vestry elect its own treasurer and other officers, and that the said congregations may adopt such by laws for each, respectively, as to them may seem necessary; Provided, they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, any rules or regulations by the said congregations heretofore adopted, to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER 237.

Passed Mar. 10 1835

A supplement to an act, entitled, an act to revive and amend the act, entitled, an act to provide for the appointment of Commissioners for the regulation and improvement of the Town of Cumberland, in Allegany County, and to incorporate the same.

Election of councilmen

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the free white male citizens of the town of Cumberland, entitled to vote for Councilmen for said town, shall assemble at the Court House on the first Monday of May next, and on the same day in every year thereafter, and elect the Councilmen, as is provided for in the act to which this is a supplement.

Term—oath

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the Councilmen thus elected, and the Mayor by them elected, shall hold their respective appointments until the first Monday of May, eighteen hundred and thirty-six, and until others are elected in their place, and the persons then elected shall take the oaths of office required by law.

Judges—return &c.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the first election of Councilmen of said town, shall be held by any two justices of the peace of Allegany county, residing in said town; the election to be held at the Court House in said town, and the polls to be kept open from nine o'clock in the morning until