any foreign power, or there shall be any invasion or threatened invasion, or any insurrection, he shall in either of these cases, be authorised and required, in his judgment, the crisis seems to require it, to issue said proclamation forthwith.

CHAPTER 252.

Enacted March 1833. In an act for the benefit of James Carlin, of Frederick County.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it may be lawful for the levy court of Frederick county, in their discretion they deem proper, to levy on the assessable property of Frederick county, such sum of money as in their discretion they deem right, for the benefit of James Carlin, which sum, if any, shall be collected as other county charges are, and when collected, shall be paid over to the said James Carlin.

CHAPTER 253.

Passed March 1833. In an act to declare and ascertain the right of Citizens of this State, to private Roads or Ways.

Enacted

WHEREAS, the citizens of this State ought to have a Road or way from their farms and plantations, to places of public worship, to mills, market towns, public ferries, and court houses, and to the public highway, and while such benefit should be extended to the citizens of this State, it is but just and proper that it should be granted with as little injury or damages to the lands through which such private roads or ways shall pass, as may be consistent with the convenience of the person or persons who may need such private road or way;—therefore, to accomplish these objects:

Commissioners

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy court, or board of commissioners, as the case may be, of the several counties of this State, on application of any person or persons for a private road or way, shall appoint three discreet and sensible persons, not related to either of the parties, of the county, who shall act
