

CHAP. 254.

or trustees to supply such vacancy or vacancies, and in this manner shall all future vacancies be supplied by said trustees and their successors, or a majority of them, so as to perpetuate the number of ten persons as trustees of the said Academy forever.

Appointed to see to the execution of the powers given to the trustees.

Sec. 3. that it be enacted, That the said trustees and their successors by the name and style aforesaid, shall be capable in law to sue and be sued; shall and be represented, in any court or courts, and before any judge or judges of justice within the State, and elsewhere in all manner whatsoever suits, complaints, pleas, causes, matters and demands of whatsoever kind, nature, or form they may be, and all and every other matter or thing, to or therein, in full and effectual manner as any person or persons, bodies politic, or corporate within this State, in like cases may or can, or do, perform, and the said trustees, or their successors or a majority of them, shall have full power and authority to have, make, and use one common seal, with such device and inscription as they shall think proper, and thereunto to pass and authenticate the certificates, acts, or documents of the said corporation, and the same shall be fully plenary, unbreak, alter, and renew.

Appointed to see to the execution of the powers given to the trustees.

General power.

Rules.

Sec. 4. that it be enacted, That the said trustees and their successors, or a majority of them, from time to time, and at all times hereafter, shall have full power and authority to constitute and appoint professors, teachers and assistants, for instructing the students and scholars of the said Academy, in such sciences and branches of education as they shall think proper and suitable to be taught therein, and make ordinances and regulations for the good government of the said Academy and the instruction of the youth, and to be free to appoint such of their own body, or others, that they may think proper to be a quorum or committee for transacting all general and necessary business of said seminary, and making temporary rules and regulations for the protection; and also to delegate to the said professors and teachers such powers and authorities as they shall think convenient for the government and discharge of their several trusts, and the execution of the regulations above mentioned, to make such regulations for the direction, visitation, and examination of the said seminary, and the students and scholars therein as shall best promote the important objects of the institution; Provide likewise, that the said ordinances, rules, and repugnant to the constitution and laws of this State.