

ordinances and regulations for the good government of the said academy, and the instruction of the youth aforesaid; and to appoint such number of their own body, not less than five, as they may think proper, to be a quorum or committee, for transacting all general and necessary business of the said seminary, and making temporary rules for the management thereof, and also to delegate to the said professors and teachers, such powers and authorities as they shall think expedient for the government and discipline of the said seminary, and the execution of the regulations thereof, and also to make such regulations for the direction, visitation and examination of the said seminary, and the students and scholars therein, as shall best promote the important objects of the institution: Provided always, that the said ordinances be not repugnant to the constitution and laws of this State.

CHAP. 260.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the said trustees and their successors, or a majority of them, shall meet at least twice in every year, in stated semi-annual meetings, to be appointed by their own ordinances, and at such other times as by their said ordinances or by their own adjournments they may direct, and when so assembled, they shall have power, from time to time, to appoint a president, treasurer, and secretary, to make contracts with the professors or teachers, relative to the instruction of the scholars to be placed under their care, and for the payment of their salaries: to examine the progress of the students and scholars, to hear and determine on all complaints and appeals, and upon all matters touching the discipline and government of the said academy, and the execution of their ordinances, and generally to manage the state and concerns of the said seminary, in such manner as they shall deem best for the advantage of the institution.

Semi-annual meetings

CHAPTER 260.

An act relating to a Road in Montgomery County.

Passed March 1834.

WHEREAS, a company was incorporated at December session, eighteen hundred and seventeen, chapter ninety seven, by the name of the President, Managers and Company of the Rockville and Washington Turnpike Road, with power to make a turnpike road from Rockville, in Montgo-

premiere