

chosen at any annual meeting, and if any manager, treasurer or secretary aforesaid, shall die, resign, refuse to serve, or neglect to act, such vacancy may be filled at any adjourned or occasional meeting, in the same manner in which the officers of the said company are elected at the regular annual meetings thereof, and if any manager, treasurer or secretary as aforesaid, shall remove from the neighbourhood of said marshes or low grounds, the said company at any adjourned or occasional meeting thereof, may declare the place of such manager, treasurer or secretary, vacant, and elect another to supply his place; and further, the said company shall have power to do all such acts at any adjourned or occasional meetings, as may or might be done at an annual meeting, but no sum of money shall be ascertained or determined to be raised at any occasional meeting.

CHAP. 264.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That the treasurer and every treasurer, shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, give bond with surety or sureties, to be approved by the managers at the time being, to and in the name of the said company, in the penalty of two thousand dollars, upon condition to be void if he should pay all orders drawn upon him by the managers for the time being, or by one or more manager or managers, is or are by this act authorised to draw orders upon the treasurer, as far as he the said treasurer shall have funds for that purpose, and shall well and truly account for all monies that may come to his hands as such treasurer, at every annual meeting of the company, or otherwise as the company may direct, and shall pay any balance or sum which shall be due from him on such account, to his successor in office, or otherwise, as the company may direct, and shall perform all the duties of his office with fidelity.

Treasurer—bond

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That the treasurer, and every treasurer to be chosen as aforesaid, shall have full power and authority to demand and receive, levy and make all and every the taxes which shall be laid and assessed pursuant to this act, by the managers, according to the certificate or the list shall be delivered to such treasurer, which certificate or list shall be his sufficient warrant for that purpose, and in any case any tax or taxes, so laid and assessed, or any part thereof, shall remain unpaid for the space of ten days after the time appointed for the payment thereof, the treasurer aforesaid may and shall proceed to levy and make all such taxes so remaining unpaid, or any part thereof remaining unpaid, in the same manner, and by

Due to the land—collections