

A supplement to the act entitled an act to provide for electing Commissioners for Cecil County, by districts, and prescribing their duties and powers, and repealing an act and its supplements therein mentioned. Passed March 11, 1833

WHEREAS, it is provided by the act to which this is a supplement, that the clerk of the commissioners of Cecil county, shall be entitled to receive as compensation for his services, such sum annually as the said commissioners may direct not exceeding the sum of three hundred dollars; and whereas it was provided by the laws in force before the passage of this act, to which this is a supplement, that all constables bonds, supervisors bonds, or other instruments of writing, appertaining to or immediately connected with the office of the said commissioners, should be recorded in the office of the clerk of the commissioners, who should be entitled to the same fees, which were allowed to the clerk of the county, for the same services, which fees were to be paid, over and above the annual salary allowed to the said clerk, by the said commissioners; AND WHEREAS, some doubts have arisen, whether by the act to which this is a supplement, the said commissioners have power to allow their clerk, any fees for recording such bonds or other instruments of writing, over and above the annual salary not exceeding the sum of three hundred dollars, Therefore,

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said commissioners of Cecil county, shall allow to the clerk, whom they may appoint or have appointed, by virtue of this act to which this is a supplement, in addition to such annual sum provided to be allowed to him, such fees for recording constable's bonds, supervisor's bonds, and all other instruments of writing, formerly recorded in the office of the clerk of the county, appertaining to, or immediately connected with the office of said commissioners, as were allowed to the clerk of the county for the same services, to be levied, collected, and paid over as other county charges are. For to be allowed for recording

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the commissioners of Cecil county, shall allow to the representatives of John Kean deceased, the late clerk of said commissioners, such fees for recording such bonds, and other instruments of writing during the term of his office, as were formerly allowed to the clerk of the county for the said services, to be levied, collected, and paid as the other county charges are. To late clerk
