

and extended to the first day of January eighteen hundred and thirty five, and to the end of the General Assembly next thereafter; AND WHEREAS, notwithstanding the said corporation has attempted to wind up its concerns and to close its Banking operations, there are still due and unpaid certain debts claimed by the said corporation; and there still remain unsettled and undecided, certain suits instituted in the name of the corporation, or for the use of the same, or of those claiming under the same, for the proper adjustment of which further time will be required, Therefore—

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the act entitled an act to establish a Bank and incorporate a company under the name of the Elkton Bank of Maryland, to which this is a further supplement, and the several supplements thereto, and the charter thereby created shall continue and be in force until the first day of December eighteen hundred and forty, and until the end of the next session of the General Assembly thereafter; Provided, that this act shall cease to have any effect should the said corporation or Bank proceed to transact any other business than such as may be necessary to close and wind up the concerns of the same.

Charter, &c. continued

Provided

CHAPTER 289.

2 supplement to an act to authorise the appointment of justices of the peace in the City of Baltimore with limited jurisdiction, passed at December session eighteen hundred and twenty five, chapter one hundred and eighty nine.

Passed Mar. 20, 1832

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That so much of the act to which this is a supplement as limits the number of justices thereby authorised to be appointed, to four, be and the same is hereby repealed; and that the governor by and with the advice and consent of the council, be authorised to appoint such number of justices of the description and with the powers mentioned in the said act, as in their opinion shall be useful and necessary for the public convenience and welfare; Provided always, that the justices so appointed, shall not be authorised to take acknowledgements of deeds.

Number left at Discretion