CHAPTER 295.

An act for the relief of John Marbury, Executor of the last Will and Testament of William Marbury, late of the District of Columbia, deceased. Passed March 21, 1834

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said John Marbury be, and he is hereby authorised and empowered, to file an inventory or inventories of the personal estate of the said William Marbury, being in Prince George's county, in this State, at the time of his death, in the Orphans' Court of Washington county, in the District of Columbia, and to settle and pass all such accounts, and do and perform all such duties, touching the estate of the said William Marbury, in Prince George's county, as the law now requires should be filed, passed, and done in Prince George's county aforesaid, and the said inventories and accounts so filed and passed, and other duties performed, in the Orphans' Court of Washington county aforesaid, shall have the same effect and credit in this State, as if the same had been filed, passed, and done in Prince George's county, in this State, and it shall not be necessary for the said John Marbury to take out letters testamentary, in Prince George's county, in this State, for the administration of the said personal estate, of the said William Marbury, or to make any return touching the same, to the Orphan's Court of said county. Authorized without administering &c.
