CHAPTER 308.

An additional supplement to the act concerning Crimes and Punishments. Passed March 21st

WHEREAS, it has been represented to this General Assembly, that the irregular construction of the work shops of the Maryland Penitentiary, which were originally planned only in reference to ordinary manufacturing purposes; their scattered location and division into numerous apartments, render the necessary constant supervision of the convict, during the hours of labor, impracticable; And whereas, it is the disposition of the State to furnish the Penitentiary with the further and final means necessary to complete the
