CHAPTER 334.

Enacted March 13, 1835. An act for the more effectual collection of the County Charges in Allegany County.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be the duty of the collector of the county charges of Allegany county, on or before the first Monday of March, in each and every year hereafter, to return a list of all non-resident's land, and others on which there is no personal property, from which the tax can be made, with the name of the owner or owners, name of the land, number of lots, with the amount of taxes due thereon, whether for one or more years, or where the owners of said land have no personal property within said county.

Section 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said commissioners to cause a list of said lands to be published, for the term of three weeks successively, in the two papers published in the town of Cumberland, one daily paper published in the city of Baltimore, and one daily paper in the city of Washington, expressing in said list, the name or names of the owners, the names of the lands, and number of lots, the amount of tax due thereon, and all costs, with the number of acres, notifying the said absentees that unless the taxes, and all costs thereon, shall be paid to the collector of Allegany county, for the time being, or his agent in Baltimore, on or before the first day of June then following, the said lands, or such part thereof as shall be sufficient to pay the county charges, and all costs thereon, shall be sold at public vendue, for the payment thereof, and
