

with the Governor and Council for the uses of any future work of revision and digesting, and to be delivered for that purpose to the director hereinafter mentioned.

Resolved, That the Governor and Council shall cause to be paid such amount as they shall find to be fair and proper for the printing, in regard to said revision and Digest heretofore done at the instance of Messrs. Buchanan and Johnson.

Resolved, That the acts of Assembly of this State, public or of a general nature, now in force or hereafter before the completion of the work to be executed, be revised, collated and digested, under their appropriate titles: and that, for that purpose the Governor and Council be and they are hereby authorized and required to appoint a competent person to act as the Director of the Digest, who shall divide into such titles all the said Acts, and devise the form in which the Digest shall be made, and report the same to the Governor and Council; who shall thereupon appoint as many persons as to them may seem most proper to ensure a prompt accomplishment of the work, to whom separately shall be assigned to be revised, collated, and digested, one or more of said titles.

And each of said persons shall note the Acts or parts of Acts omitted from the Digest, as having been repealed or having expired or as being repugnant to the Constitution of the United States or of this State, and shall make such suggestions as to additional enactments and as to imperfections of any kind, in the existing law of the titles committed to him, as he may think proper.

And to one or more of said persons shall be assigned the duty of compiling the Constitution of this State, with the Bill of Rights, and also the Constitution of the United States, with the alterations it shall have undergone since its adoption, and it shall be the duty of one or more of said persons, to make a list in chronological order, of the Acts not public or of a general character, and not for the benefit of particular individuals.

And the said persons shall report their respective works to the Director of the Digest, and shall examine and make such corrections thereof, and additional suggestions under the several titles, as to him may appear proper; And the Director shall make a report to the General Assembly of the whole work, so prepared by such persons, with an Index to it, which he shall make or cause to be made; presenting in his said Report all his views and every information in his power, for facilitating the Assembly in their delibera-
