

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

	Chap.	Sec.
DENTON, . . . . .	Further supplement to the act of 1831, chap. 138, for the regulation and improvement of the village of, in Caroline county, conferring the powers of a constable upon the bailiff of, &c.	162
DICKINSON COLLEGE, . . . . .	See chapter 87.
DISTRESS FOR RENT, . . . . .	Stoves in the hands of persons hiring them, exempt from, provided contract in writing, duly certified, &c.	180
	To amend the law relative to,	192
	Affidavit of the landlord required to his account, &c. on,	" 1
	Similar affidavit to be appended to notice in case of instructing sheriff or constable, &c. to sell, &c.	" 2
	Similar affidavit required to authorise a warrant for rent due,	" 3
	Only two appraisers to be summoned,	" 4
	Fee for summoning and swearing each appraiser 20 cts.	" "
	Compensation for serving as appraiser, 30 cents,	" "
	Distress made otherwise than according to this act absolutely illegal and void,	" 5
DIVISIONAL LINES—	To establish the, between Frederick and Montgomery counties,	63
	To alter and change the, between the 2d and 3d and 4th election districts of Washington county,	166
DIVORCE, . . . . .	Sarah Mitchell, divorced a vinculo matrimonii, from Samuel Mitchell,	69
	Nancy Tharp from Richard Tharp, a vinculo matrimonii,	196
	Jacob Walter from Mary Walter, a vinculo matrimonii,	215
	Elizabeth Shoppy, from bed, board, &c. of Simon Shoppy,	216
	Sarah Postell, from George A. Postell, a vinculo matrimonii,	218