

CHAP. 58.

Oath required

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That after the said commissioners shall be duly sworn by some justice of the peace in and for said county, they shall on a day to be appointed by themselves proceed to examine the road, and if upon a careful examination of that part as before designated, they shall be of opinion that the said road, or any part thereof before designated, may be changed to the mutual advantage of the public, and the proprietor through whose land said road passes, and the proprietor consenting thereto, then the said commissioners shall make such judicious alteration in the location of said road as they may deem necessary and proper; Provided nevertheless that the proprietor shall at his own proper cost, lay out, establish, and make a good and sufficient road according to the alteration of the aforesaid commissioners, and provided also that if the said proprietor should neglect to lay out, and make such road, a good and sufficient road, according to the change and alteration of the commissioners as aforesaid appointed, then, and in that event, it shall and may be lawful for the Levy court of said county to shut up and close such road, so as aforesaid laid out and made by the proprietor, in the same manner, as might have been done, if this act had not passed.

Proceeding directed

Conditions

Report

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall report the alteration which they may make in said road to the clerk of Prince George's county court, who shall record the same at the proprietors expense.

Compensation

Sec 4. And be it enacted, That if the aforesaid commissioners shall make a charge for their services, it shall not exceed two dollars per day, the expenses thereof to be paid by the proprietor.

CHAPTER 58.

Passed Jan. 28, 1835

A supplement to the act entitled an act to authorise the Trustees of the Poor, of Dorchester County, to purchase a farm for the use of the poor, and to sell the present Almshouse of said county, and for other purposes; passed March the ninth, eighteen hundred and thirty-two.

Preamble

WHEREAS, by the act passed at December session eighteen hundred and thirty one, chapter two hundred and fifty six, section first, the trustees of the poor of Dorchester county, were authorised to purchase a farm for the use of the poor