

CHAP. 61.

CHAPTER 60.

Passed Feb. 11, 1835 An act supplementary to an act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty three, chapter two hundred and fifty.

Preamble

WHEREAS, by the act to which this is a supplement, Mary Ann Farrell was divorced from her husband, who is therein represented to be named James U. Farrell, AND WHEREAS it appears that his proper name is James W. Farrell, and as some doubt might arise as to the validity of the act aforesaid, Therefore:

Confirmation

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the act to which this is a supplement, shall be so construed, as to divorce Mary Ann Farrell from her husband James W. Farrell, as though his name should have been therein correctly set forth.

Forbid to marry

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act contained, shall allow the said Mary Ann Farrell to marry again during the life time of the said James W. Farrell.

CHAPTER 61.

Passed Feb. 10, 1835 A supplement to the act to Incorporate the Town, called and known by the name of East New Market, in Dorchester county.

Repeal

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That so much of the ninth section of the original act to which this is a supplement, as fixes the limits of the said town of East New Market, to the distance of one half of a mile from the tavern aforesaid, each way, be, and the same is hereby repealed, and the limits of said town, in future, shall be, one third of a mile, each way, from the tavern aforesaid; and no farm or any part thereof, the dwelling house upon which shall not be in the limits of said town, shall be subject to any tax or charge whatever, without the consent of the owner or occupier thereof.

Exemption from tax

Bailiff authorised

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the bailiff hereafter to be appointed by said commissioners, shall collect all fines and forfeitures under the ordinances of said commissioners, and for this purpose only, he is hereby invested with the same
