

CHAPTER 82.

CHAP. 83.

An act for the relief of Matthias Dashiell, late Sheriff and Collector of Somerset County. Passed Feb. 13, 1835

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That ^{Authorized to collect} Matthias Dashiell, late sheriff and collector of Somerset county, be, and he is hereby authorised and empowered, to collect and receive all and any balance or amount of officers fees, chancery taxes, and fines and forfeitures, and county taxes, which may be due to the said Dashiell, in the same manner and with the same power and privileges as are allowed by law, and in the same manner and to the same effect as if the term of office of the said Dashiell, as sheriff and collector as aforesaid, had not yet expired: ^{Provided} that if any person against whom there is a claim by said Dashiell, for officers fees, chancery taxes, fines and forfeitures, or county taxes as aforesaid, shall make affidavit before any justice of the peace of said county, that he or she believes the same to be unjust, or that the same had been paid at any previous time, to the person claiming the same, it shall forever bar such claim: Provided also, that nothing in this act shall be construed to affect the estate of any deceased person: and provided also, that this act shall only continue in force for one year from its passage.

CHAPTER 83.

An act relating to the Trial of Ejectment Causes, in this State. Passed Feb. 13, 1835

WHEREAS, under the laws of this State, the citizen can ^{Preamble} only be sued, in the first instance, in the county in which he resides; but this provision has never been fully applied to the trial of actions of Ejectment for lands lying partly in one county and partly in another, Wherefore:

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Ma- ^{Where to be tried} ryland, That after the passage of this act, none of the courts of this State shall entertain or try any action of ejectment, for the recovery of the possession of any tract of land lying partly in one county and partly in another, being entirely in possession of a citizen residing in one of said coun-
