CHAPTER 87.

Passed Feb, 17, 1835. An act to Incorporate The Trustees of the Education Fund of the Baltimore Annual Conference.

Preamble

WHEREAS, the Baltimore Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in order to revive Dickinson College, in Carlisle, Pennsylvania, upon a plan of extended usefulness, and with ample and permanent resources, under the auspices of the said Conference, has provided a fund, which may receive future accessions, for sustaining and conducting said Institution; and whereas, the Baltimore Annual Conference has placed said fund in the care of trustees, who are charged with the duty of investing it, and thereby to make it productive, and are directed to pay over to the trustees of the said Institution, for its support, all the issues and interest and income of said fund;—and whereas, although the immediate and primary object of said fund is the support of Dickinson College, yet, in the event of a dissolution of that Institution, or its operations ceasing, or of its no longer being under the care or auspices of said Annual Conference, the destination of said fund, under the direction of said Annual Conference, should be to the purposes of Education, and an appropriation thereof, in that respect, should be made, as the said Annual Conference
